

APSA MEMBERSHIP

Remember, being a member of the APSA gives you:

- Free subscription to:
 - Australian Journal of Political Studies
 - Access to APSA Website
 - Electronic Newsletter
- Reduced attendance fees at the APSA Annual Conference
- Special offers made by Taylor & Francis Publishers on a selection of Politics titles
- A Graduate Network
- Access to a range of Caucus Groups for example, Women's Caucus and Postgraduate Students Caucus, both of whom run their own events
- Prizes including the Crisp Medal awarded for the best book published for early career; the Mayer Prize for the best article published in AJPS; Women's in Politics Prize for best conference paper; and the prize for best PhD awarded in previous year.
- An Electronic Directory of Political Studies in Australasia
- Campaigning on your behalf on research, teaching and funding issues.
- Concessionary prices for the Political Studies Association of the United Kingdom's Annual Conferences and its journals.

APSA Membership detail enquiries can be obtained from Mary Hapel on (02) 61252135 or email at Mary.Hapel@anu.edu.au. The website address is <http://auspsa.anu.edu.au>

VALUE FOR MONEY

APSA membership is also tax deductible.

Please return the enclosed application form to:
APSA Membership, Political Science Program, R555, ANU
Canberra ACT 0200